

Are you inspired to save a life?

ALQMA IS RACING FOR PINKS

August 14, 2010

Sign-ins 10:00 - 11:00 a.m.

With qualifying format

ALL cars $20

All drivers will receive a trophy

Please join us for a full day of racing action
And help support a worthy cause benefitting
Breast Cancer awareness.

Proceeds will be donated to Susan G Koman Passionately Pink for the Cure®

Are you racing this event?

We want to Support the fighters,
Admire the Survivors, and Honor the taken

Has breast cancer affected you, a friend, or family member? If you are racing this event, we would like to know the name of person with cancer, relation, and if they are a fighter, survivor or one of the taken. Please also include the name of your driver and class. Forms are available at the track or send information to:

Cathy Hanes
mchanes@verizon.net
309-726-2206

Directions to the ALQMA track: www.alqma.com

Located outside Broadwell, IL (near Lincoln) behind the old Rocking Horse Campground

From North of Lincoln, IL on I-55

Take Exit 119 [Broadwell exit]. Travel up ramp and turn right [north]. Then follow the directions to the below.

From South of Lincoln, IL on I-55

Take exit 119 [Broadwell exit] and turn left [north] over the interstate. Then follow the directions to the below.

Turn left at the Middletown sign onto 1100th St. Continue straight for approximately 2 miles to a T-intersection. Turn right on 600th Avenue and continue 1 mile. The road will take a sharp turn to right (1200th St.) and the entrance to the ALQMA track is located on the left. Take the left fork at the entrance and follow it to the back of campground. Observe 10 mph.

Help support the fighters, admire the survivors, and honor the taken!

Online donations may be given at www.passionatelypink.com.

Search for Team Name: ALQMA Racing for Pinks

